1 Adapted by Academy Award winning writer Julian Fellowes, Doctor Thorne by Anthony Trollope, is the story of Doctor Thomas Thorne, who lives in the village of Greshamsbury in Barseshire, with his beautiful niece, Mary, a girl blessed with every gift except money. Mary Thorne has grown up alongside the Gresham sisters – Augusta, Beatrice and their handsome brother Frank – whose home is the great house and estate at Greshamsbury Park. When the terrifying Lady Arabella Gresham discovers that her darling son, Frank, has fallen in love with Doctor Thorne's penniless niece, she is horrified. We have 12 DVDs of Doctor Thorne to give away. Competition code: Doctor Thorne

2 New Zealand Kettle Korn is helping feed hungry, Kiwi kids with their official Eat My Lunch supporters' bag. For every bag someone buys they give another to a child in need, plus they've also donated $20,000. The Eat My Lunch bags are available now in supermarkets nationwide and we have five prizes of three bags of Kettle Korn to give away. Competition code: Kettle Korn

3 Nutri-Grain gives young Kiwis the fuel to live an unstoppable life, providing New Zealand families with a nutritious and tasty food for a satisfying start to the day.

Farmers need to start taking responsibility

1 I have been reading the article about the sheep and goats in the Hawke's Bay region. It is a pity that the article does not mention the fact that the majority of the sheep and goats are owned by the same few people. It is also a pity that the article does not mention the fact that the majority of the sheep and goats are owned by the same few people.
